All Characters, by Surname A-Z

-  Aaron, Starfleet Flag Officer, Vice Admiral of Starfleet. Bodily host for one of the parasitic bug aliens that advanced a nefarious plot to take covert control of Starfleet Command. Played by Ray Reinhardt.
-  Adam, Musician. Member of a ragtag band of space hippies who searched for the mythical planet Eden in a stolen space cruiser. After being taken into custody aboard the original Enterprise, he delighted the crew by playing on his space guitar, singing songs about the virtues of abandoning technological society. He died after eating a highly acidic fruit on a planet he wrongly believed to be Eden. Played by Charles Napier.
- Adams, Tristan, Psychologist of Federation. Director of the Tantalus Penal Colony. Suspicions about the therapies he employed on the prisoners were raised after his assistant beamed up to the original Enterprise in a deranged state of mind. Played by James Gregory.
-  Admiral Brand, Superintendent, Rear Admiral of Starfleet. Superintendent of Starfleet Academy at the time of the infamous Nova Squadron incident, in which Wesley participated in the cover up in the death of a fellow cadet in a botched flight maneuver. She presided over an investigation into the death of the said cadet. Played by Jacqueline Brookes.
-  Admiral Haftel, Starfleet Flag Officer, Vice Admiral of Starfleet. Cybernetics specialist who ordered Data to give up custody of his daughter Lal. Played by Nicolas Coster.
-  Akuta, Tribal Leader. Leader of a band of stone age people on Gamma Trianguli VI who worship the planet's environmental control machine, Vaal, as a god. Played by Keith Andes.
-  Albert, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Played by Ed Lauter.
-  Alden, Science Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Lloyd Haynes.
-  Alexander, Son of Worf, Weapons Officer. Alexander Rozhenko is Worf's only son. The father and son found themselves in almost constant conflict over Alexander's disregard for Klingon traditions, although he ultimately followed in the ways of the warrior, and fought for the The Klingon Defense Forces in the Dominion War. Played by James Sloyan, Marc Worden, Brian Bonsall, Jon Steuer.
-  Alice. Replica of Alice from Alice in Wonderland first encountered by McCoy on the Shore Leave Planet. Played by Marcia Brown.
-  Alice no.118. Number 118 of 500 Alice series androids on Planet Mudd. They were made according to Harry Mudd's personal specifications, as were the Maisie series, the Trudie series, and the Annabel series. Played by Alyce Andrece.
-  Alice no.322. Number 322 of 500 Alice series androids on Planet Mudd. They were made according to Harry Mudd's personal specifications, as were the Maisie series, the Trudie series, and the Annabel series. Played by Rhae Andrece.
-  Alkar, Ves, Diplomat, Ambassador of Federation. Federation mediator who owed his success to his ability to transfer his negative emotions to others, inducing death by rapid aging in them in the process. He used Troi as a receptacle for his negative emotions during his mediation of a dispute on Rekag-Seronia. Played by Chip Lucia.
-  Allenby, Tess, Navigator, Ensign of Starfleet. Token redshirt who sat at the conn from time to time after Wesley left the Enterprise-D to enter Starfleet Academy. Played by Mary Kohmert.
-  Anan 7, High Council Leader of Eminian Union. Led the Eminian Union in a computer simulated war with the people of Vendikar when the original Enterprise visited the planet on a diplomatic mission. It was his responsibility to compel the crew to report to disintegration chambers after the ship was marked as destroyed in a simulated attack and the crew declared casualties of war. Played by David Opatoshu.
-  Andrea, Companion. Sexy android built by Roger Korby who nurse Chapel referred to as a "mechanical geisha". Played by Sherry Jackson.
-  Anna, Diplomat, Ambassador. Secret female identity of the Iyaaran Ambassador Voval, created to study the concept of love in human society. He took on this form shortly after staging a crash landing of a shuttlecraft he shared with Captain Picard. Played by Barbara Williams.
-  Anya, Guardian. Guardian and protector of Salia, the leader in waiting of a race of shapshifting monsters. Played by Paddi Edwards.
-  Apgar, Manua. Played by Gina Hecht.
-  Apgar, Nel, Scientist. Scientist who invented a Krieger war converter in his Federation funded orbital research station above Tanuga IV. He died when his research station exploded just as Riker was beaming back to the Enterprise-D after having stopped by to check on his progress. A hearing was convened on the holodeck to determine whether to extradite Riker on the charge of murder, but he was cleared of any crime when it was discovered that Apgar was responsible for the explosion. Played by Mark Margolis.
-  Ardra, Con Artist. Interstellar con artist who duped the Ventaxians into believing that she was their mythical devil in order to exploit them for cheap labor. Her deception was exposed by Captain Picard in a dramatic courtroom trial. Played by Marta Dubois.
-  Argyle, Chief Engineer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Preceded Geordi as chief engineer aboard the Enterprise-D. He best remembered for supervising Kosinski's warp drive experiment and reassembling Data's evil brother, Lore. Played by Biff Yeager.
-  Armus, Bully. Malevolent sick of tar that murdered Tasha Yar on planet Vagra II in the Zed Lapis sector. Played by Matt Chesney, Ron Gans (voice).
-  Arridor, Physician of Ferengi Alliance. Found himself stranded in the Delta Quadrant together with his associate Kol after passing through the Barzan wormhole in a shuttlecraft. Played by Dan Shor.
-  Aster, Jeremy of Federation, House of Mogh. Orphaned when his mother, Marla, died in the line of duty on a Worf led away mission. Worf later made him an honorary member of his family by performing the R'ustait ceremony. Played by Gabriel Damon.
-  Aster, Marla, Archaeologist, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Mother of Jeremy Aster; she died on a Worf led away mission, which left the Klingon with a sense of duty to take care of her newly orphaned son. Played by Susan Powell.
-  Atkins, Doris, Crewmember, Yeoman of Starfleet. Played by Carolyn Nelson.
-  Ayelborne, Council Chairman. Pure energy being who appeared in humanoid form to greet Captain Kirk and Spock when they beamed down to the Organian homeworld. He was instrumental in brokering the Organian Peace Treaty between the Klingons and Federation. Played by John Abbot.
-  Ba'el. Descended from Klingon survivors of the Khitomer Massacre; she lived in a Romulan prison camp, where Klingons and Romulans lived in harmony. She and Worf, who infiltrated the community on bogus information that his father was being held there, became infatuated with one another, but Worf rejected her upon discovering that she was half Romulan. Played by Jennifer Gatti.
-  Bailey, Dave, Navigator, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Navigator when the original Enterprise encountered the First Federation flagship Fesarius. Following a tense confrontation, he volunteered to serve aboard the Fesarius for an undetermined period of time for the purpose of cultural exchange. Played by Anthony Call.
-  Balok, Starship Captain of First Federation. Played by Clint Howard.
-  Baran, Arctus, Mercenary. Leader of a band of marauders hired by a group of Vulcan isolationists to smuggle them the Stone of Gol. Played by Richard Lynch.
-  Barclay, Reginald, Systems Diagnostic Engineer, Lieutenant, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. A talented member of Geordi's engineering team, whose reclusive and highly-introverted nature brought him into socially awkward situations with the crew, and at times rendered him incompetent in the workplace. His nick name is "Lieutenant Broccoli". Played by Dwight Schultz.
-  Barnaby, Security Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Part of the skeleton crew commanded by Beverly in a space fight against a rogue Borg ship. Played by James Horan.
-  Barrows, Tonia, Crewmember, Yeoman of Starfleet. Member of the landing party that became trapped on a the Shore Leave Planet – a world where thoughts become reality. She imagined herself a princess in medieval times, and conjured up a black knight who killed Dr. McCoy. Played by Emily Banks.
-  Bartel, Engineer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Stacie Foster.
-  Bashir, Julian, Chief Medical Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Served as chief medical officer on space station Deep Space 9. He is an enthusiastic, self-important man who was genetically engineered to possess a keen analytical intelligence. Miles O'Brien is his best friend and drinking buddy. Played by Alexander Siddig.
-  Batanides, Marta, Starfleet Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Captain Picard's old flame from his cadet days at Starfleet Academy; she was involved in the barroom brawl with a group of Nausicaans that led to Picard getting impaled through the heart. Played by J.C. Brandy.
-  Bates, Hannah, Theoretical Physicist. Member of the scientific caste on the genetically engineered colony of Moab IV. She worked together with Geordi to prevent a stellar core fragment from colliding with her world, and was afterwards granted asylum aboard the Enterprise-D. Played by Dey Young.
-  Beata, Ruler, The Elected One. Matriarch of the planet Angel One. She spared a group of fugitives from execution after Riker delivered an impassioned plea for mercy. Also she slept with Riker. Played by Karen Montgomery.
-  Ben, Waiter. Ten Forward waiter who was friends with a group of junior officers that included Sam Lavelle, Taurik, sito Jaxa, and Alyssa Ogawa. Played by Bruce Beatty.
-  Berik, Privatereer of Ferengi Alliance. Member of rogue Ferengi crew that hijacked the Enterprise-D shortly after Captain Picard, Ensign Ro, Guinan, and Keiko O'Brien were transported into children in a freak transported accident. He was in charge of guarding a classroom where Picard and the others were being held. Played by Tracey Walter.
-  B'Etor, Klingon Warrior of House of Duras, Klingon Empire. Started Klingon Civil War together with her sister Lursa in a bid to wrest control of the Empire from Gowron; their efforts ended in failure and the sisters ultimately died in a space fight against the Enterprise-D in orbit over Veridian III. Played by Gwyneth Walsh.
-  Bhavani, Premier. Presided over negotiations for the rights to what appeared to be a stable wormhole near Barzan II. Played by Elizabeth Hoffman.
-  Blackwell, Margaret, Starfleet Flag Officer, Admiral of Starfleet. Played by Nancy Vawter.
-  Bochra, Romulan Officer of Romulan Star Empire. Romulan officer who found himself stranded with Geordi on a planet ravaged by electromagnetic storms. He initially took Geordi prisoner, but ultimately decided to work together with his sworn enemy in an effort to contact the Enterprise-D. Played by John Snyder.
-  Bonaventure, Ruth, Mail-order Bride. The lone brunette among the trio of mail-order brides who Harry Mudd brought to a colony of lonely dilithium miners. Played by Maggie Thrett.
-  Boyce, Philip, Chief Medical Officer, Commander of Starfleet. Served as Chief Medical Officer aboard the original Enterprise while it was under the command of Captain Pike. He once whipped up a martini for Captain Pike in his quarters, noting that, "sometimes a man will tell his bartender things he'll never tell his doctor." Played by John Hoyt.
-  Brackett, Starfleet Flag Officer, Fleet Admiral of Starfleet. Played by Karen Hensel.
-  Brahms, Leah, Engineer of Starfleet. Brilliant research engineer who played a significant role in the design of Federation starship warp drives. Geordi, on the heels of an infatuation with a holographically simulated Leah Brahms, pursued a romantic relationship with the real one when she came aboard the Enterprise-D to inspect the engines, but gave up in his efforts shortly after discovering she was already married. Played by Susan Gibney.
-  Brianon, Kareen, Personal Assistant. Personal assistant to Doctor Ira Graves until he transferred his consciousness into Data at the moment of his bodily death. Played by Barbara Alyn Woods.
-  Brooks, Janet, Starfleet Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Token redshirt who was counseled by Troi after the death of her husband. Played by Kim Braden.
-  Brossmer, Transporter Chief, Lieutenant of Starfleet. At the transporter controls when Geordi and Ensign Ro were lost when transporting back from a Romulan science vessel. Played by Shelby Leverington.
-  Burke, Security Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Token yellowshirt who replaced Worf at the tactical station while he joined Riker aboard the USS Hathaway for a war games exercise. Played by Glenn Morshower.
-  Campio, Minister. Played by Tony Jay.
-  Castillo, Richard, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Served aboard the Enterprise-C when the ship passed through a time warp and encountered the Enterprise-D in an alternate reality which saw the Federation pitted in a desperate war with the Klingon Empire. He commanded the Enterprise-C on a mission to travel back in time to prevent the war from starting. Tasha, who was alive in the alternate reality, accompanied him on the mission after the two had become romantically involved. Played by Christopher McDonald.
-  Chang, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Invigilated the taking of the Starfleet Academy entrance exam by Wesley and a handful of other prospective cadets. Played by Robert Ito.

 Chapel, Christine, Nurse, Lieutenant, Commander of Starfleet. Christine Chapel was Dr. McCoy's go to nurse in sickbay. Nurse Chapel maintained a strong romantic interest in Spock for the duration of her assignment aboard the original Enterprise, but her attempts to win his Vulcan heart proved unsuccessful. She eventually went on to obtain a medical degree and served as chief medical officer aboard the original Enterprise after its refit. Played by Majel Barrett-Roddenberry.

 Chekov, Pavel, Navigator, Ensign of Starfleet. Pavel Chekov served primarily as navigator aboard the original Enterprise. He is best remembered as a spirited young ensign, who, being proud of his Russian heritage, would take pains to point out anything of significance that he thought to have originated from his homeland, going so far as to assert that the Garden of Eden was located just outside Moscow. Played by Walter Koenig.

Christopher, John, Pilot, Captain of US Air Force. Fighter pilot in the US Air Force in the late 1960s. He was dispatched to intercept the original Enterprise when it passed accidentally through a time warp to his period. Played by Roger Perry.

Clark, Howard, Anthropologist of Federation. Served as director of a Federation science station on Ventax II at the time when the population was convinced of the imminent return of Ardra, the Ventaxian devil. Played by Paul Lambert.

Clemens, Samuel Langhorne, Author & Humorist of The United States of America. Celebrated American author and humorist, better recognized by his pen name Mark Twain. He was portrayed as an acquaintance of Guinan in late 19th century San Francisco, who traveled into the future and met Captain Picard and his crew aboard the Enterprise-D. Played by Jerry Hardin.

Clemonds, L.Q. "Sonny", Musician. Human musician from the 20th century found cryonically preserved by the Enterprise-D crew on a small vessel adrift in space. He was revived in sickbay along with Ralph Offenhause and Clare Raymond. Played by Leon Ripley.

Cochrane, Zefram, Scientist. Played by Glenn Corbett.

Cogley, Samuel T., Attorney of Federation. Defended Captain Kirk in his court martial on the charge of murder in the death of Ben Finney. Played by Elisha Cook Jr..

 Colt, J.M., Crewmember, Yeoman of Starfleet. Captain Pike's yeoman; the Talosians abducted her along with the Pike's first officer, and insisted that he choose one of them as a mate to give birth to a race of slaves to rebuild their dying world. Played by Laurel Goodwin.

 Commodore Stone, Starfleet Flag Officer, Commodore of Starfleet. Presided over a court martial of Captain Kirk on the charge of murder in the death of Ben Finney. Played by Percy Rodriguez.

 Compton, Security Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Geoffrey Binney.

Conor, Aaron, Leader. Leader of a colony of genetically engineered Humans. He fell in love with Troi when the Enterprise-D was sent on a mission to save the colony from a passing stellar core fragment of a neutron star. Played by John Snyder.

Crater, Nancy, Homemaker. Old flame of Dr. McCoy; she was killed and her identity assumed by the Salt Vampire of Planet M-113. Played by Jeanne Bal.

Crater, Robert, Archaeologist of Federation. Excavated ruins of an ancient civilization on Planet M-113 with his wife Nancy Crater until she was killed and her identity assumed by an indigenous salt vampire. He accepted the creature as Nancy, but it eventually killed him for sustenance aboard the original Enterprise. Played by Alfred Ryder.

 Crewman Green, Starfleet Officer, Crewman of Starfleet. Token redshirt; killed by the Salt Vampire of Planet M-113 for sustenance while on an away mission to the planet to investigate the mysterious death of a fellow crewman. Played by Bruce Watson.

 Crusher, Beverly, Chief Medical Officer, Commander of Starfleet. Dr. Beverly Crusher served as chief medical officer aboard the Enterprise-D. Beverly was a dedicated physician and a devoted single mother to her son Wesley, who lived with her on the ship. Not only was Beverly once known as "the dancing doctor" for her superb tap dancing ability, but she is also instrumental in finding a cure for any mysterious illness that may have threatened the wellbeing of the crew. Played by Gates McFadden.

 Crusher, Jack, Starfleet Officer, Lt. Commander of Starfleet. Beverly's one time husband and father to Wesley; he died in the line of duty while serving under Captain Picard aboard the USS Stargazer. Played by Doug Wert.

 Crusher, Wesley, Despicable Knowitall, Civilian, Acting Ensign [tng1x06], Ensign [tng3x24] of Starfleet. Wesley Crusher lived with his mother aboard the Enterprise-D, where he served mainly as acting ensign, before leaving to study at Starfleet Academy. This wunderkid routinely demonstrated his exceptional potential by saving the day just when the best and most experienced crew in Starfleet thought all was lost. He would go on to drop out of the Academy to joyride around the universe with his mentor, The Traveler. Played by Wil Wheaton.

 DaiMon Bok, Ferengi DaiMon of The Ferengi Alliance. Ferengi DaiMon who became obsessed with taking revenge on Captain Picard after his only son was killed by Picard at the Battle of Maxia. Played by Frank Corsentino, Lee Arenberg.

 DaiMon Tog, Starship Captain, DaiMon of Ferengi Alliance. Became infatuated with Lwaxana Troi while attending a Trade Agreements Conference on Betazed. He abducted Lwaxana on his starship, but she escaped with a little help from her daughter, Riker, and Captain Picard. Played by Frank Corsentino.

 D'Amato, Geologist, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Arthur Batanides.

 Danar, Roga, Soldier. Super soldier who was captured by the Enterprise-D crew after having escaped from a prison moon. Played by Jeff McCarthy.

 Daras, Resistance Fighter of Nazi Party. High ranking member of the Nazi party on Ekos, secretly allied with the anti-Nazi resistance movement. She helped Captain Kirk overthrow the Nazi regime. Played by Valora Noland.

 Daren, Nella, Scientist, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Girlfriend of Captain Picard while she headed the Enterprise-D stellar services department for a short time. Played by Wendy Hughes.

 Data, Second Officer, Lt. Commander of Starfleet. Data was a Soong-type android who held the rank of lieutenant commander aboard the Enterprise-D. This kind and inquisitive android was not only beloved by the crew, but was also relied on by Captain Picard for prudent council in the face of adversity, owing to his encyclopedic knowledge on a bewildering number of subjects and super human analytical ability. When Data is unoccupied with his command duties, he spends his time studying all aspects of the human condition, since as an android he is incapable of feeling emotions, and all he really longs for is to be human. Played by Brent Spiner.

 Dathon, Starship Captain. Died battling the Electromagnetic Beast of El-Adrel together with Captain Picard. His sacrifice was instrumental in opening relations between the Children of Tama and the Federation. Played by Paul Winfield.

 Davies, Geo-chemist, Ensign of Starfleet. Played by Nicholas Cascone.

 Davis, Engineer, Ensign of Starfleet. Played by Craig Benton.

 Daystrom, Richard, Scientist of Federation. Played by William Marshall.

 Decker, Matt, Starfleet Flag Officer, Commodore of Starfleet. Played by William Windom.

 Deela, Queen. Queen of an alien race on the verge of extinction owing to radiation induced sterility in its males. She orchestrated a takeover of the original Enterprise and attempted to use Captain Kirk as breeding stock. Played by Kathie Browne.

 Dener, Elizabeth, Psychiatrist, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Sacrificed her life to weaken Gary Mitchell, who had acquired super power after the original Enterprise penetrated the galactic barrier, enough so that Captain Kirk could kill him in a fight to the death. Played by Sally Kellerman.

 DeSalle, Navigator, Assistant Chief Engineer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Mid-ranked officer aboard the original Enterprise of French ancestry; he was left in command of the ship when the senior officers were held prisoner in a spooky castle on Pyris VII by extragalactic the aliens Korob and Sylvia. Played by Michael Barrier.

 DeSoto, Robert, Starship Captain of Starfleet. Played by Michael Cavanaugh.

 Dirgo, Captain. Mining shuttle "captain" who crash landed on a desert moon without any emergency supplies of food and water while transporting Captain Picard and Wesley. He died in a fool hearty attempt to procure water from a fountain surrounded by a mysterious force field. Played by Nick Tate.

 Doctor Farallon, Scientist. Scientist who invented the particle fountain (an orbital mining platform) and the exocomps (rodent sized, automated sentient tools). Played by Ellen Bry.

 Doctor Timicin, Scientist. Scientist who made a failed attempt to rejuvenate his peoples dying sun aboard the Enterprise-D. He fell in love with Lwaxana Troi while on board, but returned to his home world shortly thereafter to commit ritual suicide. Played by David Ogden Stiers.

 Doe, John, Healer. Recovered from life-threatening injuries under Beverly's supervision after being discovered in the wreckage of a crashed escape pod. During his convalescence, he began to display a number of remarkable powers, including the ability to heal injuries by the laying on of hands, and the ability to raise the dead to life. He ultimately transformed into a being of pure energy. Played by Mark La Mura.

 Droxine. Played by Diana Ewing.

 D'Sora, Jenna, Security Officer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Girlfriend of Data for a short time aboard the Enterprise-D. The relationship did not work out owing largely to Data's inability to experience emotions. Played by Michele Scarabelli.

 Duras, Son of Toral, Politician, Warrior, leader of the House of Duras of The House of Duras, The Klingon Empire. Prominent Klingon politician who opposed Gowron's successful bid to lead the Klingon High Council. The fall out from his defeat led to the Klingon Civil War. He was ultimately killed by Worf in a dual. Played by Patrick Massett.

 Durken, Aval, Chancellor. Chancellor of Melcor III. He decided to postpone first contact with the Federation on behalf of his people after Riker had been captured on a covert mission on the planet and was discovered to be an alien. Played by George Coe.

 Earp, Wyatt.

 Einstein, Albert, Theoretical Physicist. Hologram of Albert Einstein; Lt. Barclay once discussed how to unify the theory of general relativity with quantum mechanics with the hologram. Played by Jim Norton.

 Elaan, Dohlman of Elas. Transported aboard the original Enterprise from her home world to a neighboring planet to marry its ruler. On the way she used her tears, which functioned as a kind of super love potion, to make Captain Kirk fall in love with her. Played by France Nuyen.

 Elbrun, Tam, Diplomat of Starfleet. Betazoid first contact specialist. He was tasked to communicate with an enigmatic living space ship called Gomtu. Played by Harry Groener.

 Eline, Homemaker. Wife on Captain Picard when he experienced a lifetime of memories as Karmin in the planet Kataan. Played by Margot Rose.

 Ensign Giusti, Operations Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. At the time when Captain Picard and Riker were kidnapped by a band of mercenaries on a covert mission to retrieve the Stone of Gol. Played by Sabrina LeBeauf.

 Ensign Rager, Sariel, Helmsman, Ensign of Starfleet. Served aboard the Enterprise-D a number of occasions, including the time the crew's fantasies and fears became reality when the ship was trapped in Tyken's Rift, and she was found dancing like a ballerina by Captain Picard in the cargo bay. Played by Lanei Chapman.

 Ensign Taitt, Tactical Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Part of the skeleton crew commanded by Beverly in a space fight against a rogue Borg ship. She used her knowledge of solar dynamics to devise a plan to explode the Borg vessel by trapping it inside the corona of a star. The plan was successful and she was commended by Beverly for her original thinking. Played by Alex Datcher.

 Ensign Williams, Tactical Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. At the tactical station when the Enterprise-D was beset with systems malfunctions after the ship computer had been infected by an Iconian computer virus. Played by Dana Sparks.

 Evans, Charlie. Rescued and brought aboard the original Enterprise after being stranded on an apparently uninhabitable planet from an early age. He manifested intense psionic powers, eventually taking control of the ship, before his incorporeal adoptive parents appeared out of nowhere to return with him to their world. Played by Robert Walker Jr..

 Fajo, Kivas, Trader. Heartless trader who abducted Data and added the android to his collection of rare and precious curios that he kept aboard his small trade ship. Played by Saul Rubinek.

 Farell, John, Navigator, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Token yellowshirt. He was once tricked into supplying Harry Mudd with a communicator, which Mudd used to negotiate the sale of his cargo of mail-order brides to a trio of lonely miners. Played by Jim Goodwin.

 Felton, Conn Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Played by Sheila Franklin.

 Finnegan of Starfleet. Played by Bruce Mars.

 Finney, Ben, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Played by Richard Webb.

 Finn, Kyril, Terrorist of Ansata. Leader of a terrorist movement that sought political autonomy for their people. He took Beverly hostage, fell in love with her, and died fighting in the rescue attempt. Played by Richard Cox.

 Flint, Polymath. Immortal human encountered by Captain Kirk, Spock, and Dr. McCoy on the planet Holberg 917G when they beamed down in desperate need of ryaclon to cure a Rigellan fever epidemic that was raging aboard the original Enterprise. Played by James Daly.

- Fox, Robert, Diplomat, Ambassador of Federation. High ranking Federation diplomat who was dispatched aboard the original Enterprise to negotiate a treaty with a planet that was mined in a simulated war fought on computers. Played by Gene Lyons.
-  Freeman, Security Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Paul Baxley.
-  Freud, Sigmund, Psychologist. Played by Bernard Kates.
-  Gaetano, Science Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Crew member aboard the shuttlecraft Galileo when it crash landed on a planet populated by hostile ape-like creatures. He was killed by one of the creatures while standing guard near the shuttlecraft. Played by Peter Marko.
- Galen, Richard, Archaeologist of Federation. Renown archaeologist who took Captain Picard under his wing during his time at Starfleet Academy. Years later he presented Picard with a Kurlan naiskos on a surprise visit to the Enterprise-D. Played by Norman Lloyd.
- Galiulin, Irina, Scientist. Old flame of Chekov who dropped out of Starfleet Academy to join a band of space hippies in their quest to find the mythical planet Eden. Played by Mary-Linda Rapelye.
-  Galloway, Security Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Muscle-bound security officer on the original Enterprise. He was killed when Captain Ron Tracy disintegrated him with a blast from his phaser, but appeared in future adventures without explanation. Played by David L. Ross.
-  Galt, Master Thrall. It charge of humanoids who were abducted from around the galaxy and brought to the planet Triskelion to fight as gladiators for the amusement of a trio of disembodied brains. Played by Joseph Ruskin.
-  Garison, Communications Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Adam Roark.
-  Garrett, Rachel, Starship Captain of Starfleet. Played by Tricia O'Neil.
-  Garrovick, Security Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Redshirt who together with Captain Kirk set a trap to kill the dikironium cloud creature. Played by Stephen Brooks.
- Garth of Izar, Super Villain. Decorated Starfleet captain who went totally mad and attempted to commit a genocide, resulting in his institutionalization at an asylum for the criminally insane on Elba II. He had taken control of the asylum by the time Captain Kirk and Spock beamed down with a new medicine to cure him of his insanity. Played by Steve Ihnat.
-  Gia, Young girl who befriended Data when he suffered from amnesia on Barkon IV, after going there on a mission to retrieve radioactive materials. Played by Kimberly Cullum.
-  Gillespie, Operations Division Chief, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Token yellowshirt who lost his nerve in Ten Forward when the Enterprise-D was trapped in a Tykan's Rift. Played by Duke Moesekian.
-  Giotto, Security Chief, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Lead a team of security officers that assisted Captain Kirk and Spock in a confrontation with the Horta on the mining colony Janus VI. Played by Barry Russo.
-  Gomez, Sonya, Engineer, Ensign of Starfleet. Recent Starfleet Academy graduate who served briefly on Geordi's engineering team on the Enterprise-D; she is best remembered for spilling a coffee all over Captain Picard. It will also be noted that the actress who played Sonya Gomez also played the role of the aliens with three boobs in Total Recall. Played by Lycia Naff.
-  Goss, Starship Commander, DaiMon of Ferengi Alliance. Represented Ferengi interests in negotiations for the Barzan wormhole. Played by Scott Thomson.
-  Gowron, Son of M'Rel, Chancellor of the Klingon High Council of The Klingon Empire. Elected to lead the Klingon High Council following the assassination of Chancellor K'mpec, and ran the Klingon Empire during the Klingon Civil War, the Klingon-Cardassian War, and the Dominion War. He was assassinated by Worf in a duel. Played by Robert O'Riley.
- Graves, Ira, Cyberneticist of Federation. Played by W. Morgan Sheppard.
- Grayson, Amanda of The Federation. Humble earth schoolteacher who married the illustrious Vulcan Ambassador Sarek, and mothered Spock. Played by Jane Wyatt, Cynthia Blaise.
-  Grebnedlog, Starship Captain. Kidnapped Geordi and held him hostage aboard his starship in an effort to acquire Federation technology. Played by Christopher Collins.
- Green, Colonel Philip, Colonel. Earth tyrant in the early 21st century during World War III; his motto was "overwhelm and devastate". The Exclabians pitted Captain Kirk, Spock, a replica of Abraham Lincoln, and a replica of Surak of Vulcan against replicas of Colonel Green, Genghis Khan, Kahless, and Zora of Tiburon in a literal battle of good versus evil. Played by Philip Pine.
-  Groppler Zorn, Civic Leader. Represented Bandii interests in negotiations with the Federation for use of Fairport Station. The Federation, represented by Captain Picard, pulled out of talks when it was discovered that the station was in fact a massive Jellyfish-like Space Creature. Played by Michael Bell.
-  Guinan, Bartender of Starfleet. Guinan is from an enigmatic alien race of self-styled "listeners" and worked for a time as a bartender in Ten Forward on the Enterprise-D. She was especially close to Captain Picard, who sought her wise council in times of danger. Played by Whoopi Goldberg.
-  Gul Evrek, Officer, Gul of Cardassian Union. Clashed with Captain Picard over the removal of Native Americans from a planet conceded to the Cardassians by treaty. The two ultimately saw eye to eye and the Native Americans were permitted to live there under Cardassian rule. Played by Richard Poe.
-  Gul Lemec, Commander, Gul of Cardassian Union. Involved in a nefarious plot to kidnap and interrogate Captain Picard under extreme torture; he represented the Cardassian Union in negotiations with Edward Jellico aboard the Enterprise-D. Played by John Durbin.
-  Gul Macet, Commander, Gul of Cardassian Union. Worked with Captain Picard aboard the Enterprise-D to locate rogue captain Benjamin Maxwell after he destroyed a Cardassian outpost. Played by Marc Alaimo.
-  Gul Madred, Officer, Gul of the Cardassian Union. Sadistic officer who presided over the interrogation of Captain Picard after his capture on a covert mission into Cardassian space; a days long interrogation in which he delighted in subjecting Picard to the most incredible tortures. Played by David Warner.
-  Guy of Gisbourne, Henchman. Sworn enemy of Robin Hood in English folklore. He was conjured up by Q as part of his elaborate recreation of a Robin Hood fantasy land for the purpose of tormenting the Enterprise-D senior officers. Played by Clive Revill.
-  Haden, Vice Admiral of Starfleet. Starfleet Command Flag Officer who several times instructed Captain Picard via subspace communication. Played by John Hancock.
-  Hansen, Earth Outpost 4 Commander of Starfleet. Commanding officer on Earth Outpost 4 on the Romulan Neutral Zone; he suffered an agonizing death when the outpost was blown to smithereens by a Romulan Bird-of-Prey. Played by Gerry Walberg.
- Hanson, Helmsman, Lieutenant of The Federation. Token helmsman on the original Enterprise. Played by Hagan Beggs.
- Hanson, J.P., Officer, Vice Admiral of Starfleet Tactical. Longtime friend of Captain Picard who rose to the highest ranks of Starfleet; he died in command of Federation forces at the Battle of Wolf 359. Played by George Murdock.
- Hayne, Coalition Leader of Turkana IV Coalition. Leader of one of the two principal warring factions on the failed colony Turkana IV, the homeworld of Natasha Yar. Her younger sister, Ishara, was a member of his faction. Played by Don Mirata.
- Hedford, Nancy, Assistant Commissioner of The Federation. Merged with the companion entity rather than did from Sakuro's Disease while trapped on a planetoid with Captain K'ir, Spock, McCoy, and Zephram Cochrane. Played by Elinor Donahue.
-  Hengist, Chief Administrator. Administrator on a hedonistic world who was possessed by the murderous entity Redjac, formally known as Jack the Ripper on Earth. He framed Scotty for a series of grisly murders while the chief engineer took shore leave on the planet, but he was exposed as the murderer at a hearing aboard the original Enterprise. Played by John Fiedler.
-  Hester, Dealt, Medical Officer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Responsible for monitoring specimens of plasma plague which were being transported aboard the Enterprise-D. Played by Seymour Cassel.
-  Hickman, Paul, Science Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Former crew mate of Geordi who absconded a shuttlecraft and burned it up in the atmosphere of Tarchanen III after he began to mutate into a non-sentient, bioluminescent alien. Played by Amick Byram.
-  Hildebrant, Geomechanics Specialist, Ensign of Starfleet. Played by Ann H. Gillespie.
-  Hobson, Christopher, First Officer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Served as Data's first officer aboard the USS Sutherland during a blockade of the Klingon-Romulan border. He requested a transfer motivated by a deep seated prejudice against androids being starship captains, but later came to respect Data for his ability to command. Played by Timothy Carhart.
-  Hodin, Council Leader, Ambassador of Gideon Council. Leader of an overpopulated planet who devised an elaborate plot to kidnap Captain Kirk and harvest a lethal pathogen from a sample of his blood with the intent of causing a pandemic, thus diminishing the population. Played by David Hurst.
-  Hugh of Borg Collective. Played by Jonathan Del Arco.
-  Hutchinson, Transporter Chief, Ensign of Starfleet. Transported an away team to rescue the child Timothy from the SS Vico. Played by Harley Venton.
-  Hutchinson, Calvin "Hutch", Starfleet Officer, Commander of Starfleet. Notorious for delighting in small talk; Data availed himself of the opportunity to hone his conversational abilities by bantering with Hutchinson on a visit to Arkaria. Sadly, Hutchinson was later killed by Arkarian mercenaries in the midst of a hostage crisis. Played by David Spielberg.
-  Isabella, Imaginary Friend. Imaginary friend of Clara Sutter, who turned out to be an incorporeal alien seeking to learn about humans from the perspective of a child. Played by Shay Astar.
-  Isak, Resistance Fighter. Member of the anti-Nazi resistance movement on planet Ekos. He assisted Captain Kirk in the overthrow of the Nazi regime by, among other things, shooting Deputy Fuhrer Melakon dead. Played by Richard Evans.
-  Jaeger, Karl, Meteorologist, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Richard Carlyle.
- Jameson, Anne, Homemaker of Federation. Wife of Admiral Mark Jameson. She accompanied her husband aboard the Enterprise-D when he was dispatched to negotiate the release of hostages held by Karnas on Mordan IV. Played by Marsha Hunt.
-  Jameson, Mark, Rear Admiral of Starfleet. Elderly admiral who came out of retirement to negotiate the release of hostages held by Karnas on Mordan IV. He took a de-aging drug to regain his vitality for the mission, but died of complications before negotiations could be completed. The hostages were ultimately released. Played by Clayton Rohner.
-  Jarok, Alidar, Romulan Officer, Admiral of Romulan Star Empire. Played by James Sloyan.
-  Jaxa, Sito, Security Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Member of Nova Squadron together with Wesley; she played a role in the infamous Nova Squadron incident, in which the death of a fellow squadron member in a botched flight maneuver was covered up. She ultimately redeemed herself in the eyes of Captain Picard, but died on a covert mission into Cardassian space. Played by Shannon Fill.
-  J'Dan, Scientist of Romulan Star Empire. Traitor to the Klingon Empire who sent top secret schematics of the Enterprise-D dilithium chamber to the Romulans. Played by Henry Woronicz.
-  Jellico, Edward, Starship Captain of Starfleet. Hard as nails starship captain who commanded the Enterprise-D when Captain Picard was tasked for a covert mission in Cardassian space. His authoritarian leadership style brought him into open conflict with Riker, but the two were ultimately able to put their differences aside, and work together in the interest of completing their mission. Played by Ronny Cox.
-  Jev, Historian. Telepathic historian and psychopath. He psionically raped Counselor Troi on a visit aboard the Enterprise-D and attempted to frame his own father for the crime. Played by Ben Lemon.
-  Johnson, Security Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by David L. Ross.
-  Jol, Etana. Played by Katherine Moffat.
- Jones, Cyrano, Trader. Peddler of Spican flame gems, Antarian glow water, and most notoriously: tribbles. He is directly responsible for the tribble infestation of Federation Deep Space Station K-7. For his punishment, Captain Kirk let him choose between a twenty-year prison sentence and ridding the space station of all tribbles. He chose the latter, which Spock estimated would take 17.9 years. Played by Stanley Adams.
- Jones, Miranda, Psychologist of Federation. Blind telepath who managed to conceal her disability with the aid of a sensor-web dress. She was responsible for escorting Medusan Ambassador Kollas – a being so hideously ugly that any humanoid who saw it would go dangerously insane – aboard the original Enterprise on a mission to return him to his homeworld. Miranda, being blind, was immune to the effect. Played by Diana Muldaur.
- Jono, Human adopted son of a Talarian starship captain named Endar. He was rescued from a wrecked Talarian vessel by the Enterprise-D crew, and attempted were made to re-assimilate him into Human culture. These efforts were abandoned after he accidentally splattered Wesley with a banana split and stabbed Captain Picard in the chest. He was subsequently returned to live with his Talarian father. Played by Chad Allen.

- Kahless, the Unforgettable (clone), Emperor of the Klingon Empire of The Klingon Empire. Cloned by Klingon monks from a DNA sample of Kahless, the first Warrior King of the Klingons, in the hope that he would unite the Klingon Empire, which at the time was racked by an internal power struggle among the great houses. Played by Kevin Conway.
- Kalomi, Leila, Botanist. Fell in love with Spock while the two were stationed together on Earth, but her feelings went unrequited. In later life she joined a Federation colony whose population was rendered content, perfectly healthy, and utterly unindustrious by the Omicron pod plants. She was able to advance their relationship when, on a visit to the colony, Spock too became affected by the pod plants. Played by Jill Ireland.
- Kamala, Empathic metamorph who fell in love with Captain Picard while she was being transported aboard the Enterprise-D to marry an arranged husband for political reasons. Played by Famke Janssen.
- Kang, Klingon Warrior, Dahar Master of Klingon Defense Force. Led a band of Klingons in a battle aboard the original Enterprise for control of the ship after being taken prisoner by Captain Kirk. The fighting ended amicably once both parties realized that the Beta XII entity, an incorporeal alien that fed on negative emotions, was the real source of the conflict. He died years later in a fight to the death with Jadzia Dax at his side. Played by Michael Ansara.
- Kapoc, Rayna, Companion. Created by the immortal Flint to serve as his ideal companion. She became romantically involved with Captain Kirk when he visited their planet in desperate need of rytalin to cure a Rigelian fever epidemic that was raging aboard the original Enterprise. Played by Louise Sorel.
- Kara, Belly dancer. Murdered in cold blood by the Redjac entity on a walk home with Scotty on a foggy night. Played by Tania Lemani.
- Kara, Leader. Stole Spock's brain and used it to run the central control system for her planet. Played by Marj Dusay.
- Kargan, Warbird Captain of The Klingon Defense Forces. Riker served as his first officer aboard the Klingon Cruiser IKS Pagh under an officer exchange program between the Federation and Klingon Empire. Played by Christopher Collins.
- Karidian, Anton, Actor. Played by Arnold Moss.
- Karidian, Lenore, Actress. Daughter of Kodos the Executioner; she came aboard the original Enterprise to kill Captain Kirk and Kevin Riley, who were the last living witnesses to her father's massacre on Tarsus IV colony. Played by Barbara Anderson.
- Karnas, Governor. Governor of Mordan IV. He took the passengers of a starliner hostage as a ploy to lure Mark Jameson to negotiate their release, so that he could take vengeance on the admiral for inadvertently starting forty year civil war on his planet. Played by Michael Pataki.
- Keel, Chief lieutenant of Ten Tribes. Right hand man of Maab, Teer of the Ten Tribes. Played by Cal Bolder.
- Keeler, Edith, Social Worker of United States of America. Spread pacifist ideas from a soup-kitchen she ran in the lead up to World War II. She fell in love with Captain Kirk when he traveled back in time with Spock to find Doctor McCoy after he had overdosed on cordrazine and ran through a time portal. Kirk reluctantly allowed for her to die in a car accident in order to prevent the Nazis from winning the war. Played by Joan Collins.
- Keel, Walter, Starship Captain of Starfleet. Commanding officer of the USS Horatio; he convened a secret rendezvous with Captain Picard on Dytalix B to alert him of ongoing suspicious activities at Starfleet Command. The Horatio was soon after destroyed with the loss of all hands. It was the neural parasitic bug aliens! Played by Jonathan Farwell.
- Keeper, The Magistrate. Leader of a dying race of big brained, telepathic aliens that abducted Captain Pike and made attempts to force him to mate with human female Vina for the purpose of making a population of slaves to tend their machines. Played by Meg Willie.
- K'Ehlyr, Diplomat, Ambassador of The Federation. Federation ambassador to the Klingon empire, mate of Wolf, and mother to their son Alexander Rozhenko. She died tragically in Wolf's arms after being cut down by an assassin for her role in a complex Klingon political dispute. Played by Suzie Plakson.
- Kelinda of Kelvan Empire. Played by Barbara Bouchet.
- Kell, Diplomat, Ambassador of Klingon Empire. Traitor to the Klingon Empire who conspired with the Romulans to mentally condition Geordi to assassinate Governor Vagh aboard the Enterprise-D. Played by Larry Dobkin.
- Kelovartz, Tactical Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Had his moment in the spotlight as a member of the landing party to Omicron Ceti III, where he was tasked to investigate a colony there together with Sulu. Played by Grant Woods.
- Kelsey, Mercenary. Leader of a band of mercenaries who endeavored to steal trillithium resin from the Enterprise-D while it was in dock for a baryon sweep. Her efforts were thwarted by Captain Picard. Played by Marie Marshall.
- Kelso, Transporter Chief of Starfleet. Transported the excomps when the Enterprise-D visited Doctor Farallon's particle fountain in orbit around Tyrus VIIa. Played by J. Downing.
- Kelso, Lee, Navigator, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Navigator when the original Enterprise traversed the energy barrier at the edge of the Milky Way galaxy; he was telekinetically strangled by Gary Mitchell, who acquired super human powers following the encounter with the said barrier. Played by Paul Carr.
- Kennelly, Starfleet Officer, Vice Admiral of Starfleet. High ranking Starfleet officer who conspired with the Cardassians to eliminate a Bajoran terrorist cell. Played by Cliff Potts.
- Khan "Khaaan!" Noonien Singh, Tyrant. Tyrant who controlled more than a quarter of the Earth during the Eugenics Wars of the 1990s. After being revived from suspended animation by the crew of the original Enterprise, he attempted to take over the ship, but was thwarted by Captain Kirk and exiled on Ceti Alpha V to create a new society with his eugenically augmented people. Years later he escaped exile and set out to exact revenge on Kirk, but died in the attempt. Played by Ricardo Montalban.
- Kim, Luisa, Terraformer of Federation. Worked to terraform what was thought to be a dead planet into a habitable world, only to find that it was inhabited by an exotic crystalline life form, which came to be called the microbrains. Played by Elizabeth Lindsey.
- Kirk, James T., Starship Captain of Starfleet. Captain James T. Kirk was in charge of the original Enterprise. He is a fiery leader, a passionate womanizer, and an excellent fighter. A man of high moral standards, Captain Kirk is not above setting stray civilizations on the right path or defeating tyrannical computers with logical paradoxes whenever necessary. Played by William Shatner.
- K'mpec, Chancellor of the Klingon High Council of Klingon Empire. Longest serving Chancellor of the Klingon High Council; his assassination triggered a struggle for control of the Klingon Empire between rival factions that culminated in the Klingon Civil War. Played by Charles Cooper.
- Kolrami, Sirna, Master Strategist of Federation. Renown military strategist and master of the game Strategema. He visited the Enterprise-D to preside over a war games exercise that saw Riker pitted against Captain Picard. Played by Roy Brocksmith.
- Kor, Commander of Klingon Empire. Played by John Colicos.
- Korby, Roger, Archaeologist. Renown military archaeologist and old flame of Nurse Chapel; he discovered an ancient android civilization on an expedition to Exo III, and transferred his consciousness into an android body when he was on the verge of death after suffering from exposure to cold weather. Played by Michael Strung.
- Koroth, High Cleric of Klingon Empire. Mastermind behind a plot to clone the founder of the Klingon Empire, Kahless, in an attempt to bring reform to a corrupted Klingon political system. Played by Alan Oppenheimer.
- Korris, Klingon Warrior, Captain of The Klingon Defense Forces. Rogue Klingon captain wanted by the Klingon empire for the destruction of the IKS T'Acog in battle; he was killed by Wolf in a stand off aboard the Enterprise-D rather than turn himself in to Klingon forces for prosecution. Played by Vaughn Armstrong.
- Kosinski, Rocket Scientist of Starfleet. Federation propulsion "expert" who was sent aboard the Enterprise-D with his mysterious assistant The Traveler to upgrade the warp engines. A test of the engines following his "upgrade" sent the ship hurtling to the edge of the universe. Unbeknown to him, his propulsion theory was a bunch of nonsense, and it was The Traveler who was responsible for the astonishing displacement. Played by Stanley Karmel.
- Krag, Chief Investigator. Requested that Riker be extradited to his homeworld to be put on trial for the murder of Nel Appar. He withdrew his request after evidence was produced to exonerate Riker during a dramatic holodeck trial. Played by Craig Richard Nelson.
- Krako, Jojo, Mob Boss. Second most powerful mob boss, after Bela Okmyx, on the gangster planet Sigma Iotia II. He kidnapped Captain Kirk, offering him a 30% cut of the action should his faction be provided with phasers. Played by Vic Tayback.
- Kras, Klingon Warrior of Klingon Empire. Came into conflict with Captain Kirk when he was dispatched to Capella VI to secure mining rights for the Klingon Empire. Played by Tige Andrews.
- Krola, Minister of Internal Security. Government official on Malcor III who strongly opposed opening relations with the Federation after first contact had been established on the ground that it would result in an end to the traditional Malcorian way of life. Played by Michael Ensign.
- Kurn, Klingon Warrior, Captain of The Klingon Empire. Son of Mogh and Wolf's younger brother. He rose to become a member of the Klingon High Council, but after dishonoring his peers for some reason or another, chose to have his memories erased and join the House of Noggra under the assumed identity of Rodek. Played by Tony Todd.
- K'Vada, Warbird Captain of Klingon Defense Force. Klingon Captain who once ferried Captain Picard and Data on an undercover mission to confront Spock on Romulus. Played by Stephen Root.
- Kwan, Daniel, Engineer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Played by Tim Lounibos.
- La Forge, Geordi, Chief Engineer, Lieutenant Junior Grade, Lieutenant [mg2x01], Lt. Commander [mg3x01] of Starfleet. Chief Engineer Geordi La Forge held the rank of lieutenant commander for the better part of his tenure aboard the Enterprise-D. A gifted engineer with a taste for technobabble, Geordi was born blind but can see light beyond the visible spectrum with the aid of his signature ocular prosthesis, known as the VISOR. Geordi is most at ease in the company of male friends, while, on the other hand, he can be painfully awkward in the presence of women. Played by LeVar Burton.
- La Forge, Silva, Starfleet Officer, Captain of Starfleet. Captain of the USS Hera and mother of Geordi; she was declared missing in action after the Hera disappeared without a trace while on a courier run. Geordi became convinced that he had found her living on a derelict ship inside a gas giant, but it turned out to be a strange subspace alien. Played by Madge Sinclair.
- Lal, Scientist. Conducted an ethically dubious experiment, together with his colleague Thann, to determine whether the empathic of the Minarian star system were worthy of being saved from an impending supernova. Played by Alan Bergmann.
- Lal, Research Project, Nonperson of Starfleet. Data's daughter; Data built her from scratch in his spare time and they lived together aboard the Enterprise-D until she died tragically of a cascade failure in her neural net. Lal is the Hindi word for "beloved". Played by Hallie Todd.
- Landon, Martha, Crewmember, Yeoman of Starfleet. Member of the landing party on Gamma Trianguli VI; she became romantically involved with Chekov on the planet. Played by Celeste Yarnall.
- Landru, Philosopher. Played by Charles Macaulay.
- Lanel, Nurse. Played by Bebe Neuwirth.
- Laren, Ro, Starfleet Officer, Ensign, Lieutenant [mg7x24] of The Maquis. Ro Laren was a principled Bajoran ensign in Starfleet who defected to the Maquis resistance movement. Played by Michelle Forbes.
- Larson, Linda, Engineer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Played by Saxon Trainor.
- Latimer, Navigator, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Rees Vaughn.
- Lavelle, Sam, Operations Officer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. One among a group of junior officers posted aboard the Enterprise-D shortly before a mission near the Cardassian border. He is to be remembered for embarrassing himself while sucking up to Riker in Ten Forward by presuming that the first officer was from Canada, when he was really from Alaska. Played by Dan Gauthier.
- Lazarus, Scientist. Time traveler encountered by the original Enterprise crew who was on an insane quest to kill his counterpart from the antimatter universe, known as anti-Lazarus. Played by Robert Brown.
- Lefler, Robin, Starfleet Officer, Ensign of Starfleet. Ensign aboard the Enterprise-D who became romantically involved with Wesley the time he visited the ship only to find the crew was addicted to a mind-controlling video game. She kept a list of 102 laws to live by, which she dubbed "Lefler's Laws". Played by Ashley Judd.
- Leighton, Martha of Federation. Wife of Thomas Leighton; she expressed doubts as to whether her husband was correct in his assertion that Anton Karidian was actually Kodos the Executioner. Played by Natalie Norwick.
- Leijten, Susanna, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Former crew mate of Geordi who was instrumental in rescuing him the time he mutated into a non-sentient, bioluminescent alien on Tarchannen III. Played by Maryann Plunkett.

- Lester, Janice, Scientist of Federation. Old flame of Captain Kirk who switched bodies with him and took control of the original Enterprise until the crew mutinied. Played by Sandra Smith and William Shatner.
- Liko, Discovered a secret Federation observation base on Mintaka III together with his daughter Oji. In the chaos that ensued he came to believe that Captain Picard was a god from Mintakan mythology. Played by Ray Wise.
- Lincoln, Abraham, Politician of United States of America. A lifelike image of Abraham Lincoln created by the Excalibians to team with Captain Kirk and Spock in a battle of good versus evil. Played by Lee Bergere.
- Lindstrom, Sociologist, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Member of the landing party that went to investigate the disappearance of the starship Archon on planet Beta III. Played by Christopher Held.
- L'Kor, Klingon Warrior, Prisoner of Klingon Empire. Klingon Warrior at the Khitomer outpost, taken captive by Romulans and interrogated for three months then transferred to a prisoner camp. He later had ideological disagreements with Worf who attempted a rescue. Played by Richard Herd.
- Locarno, Nicholas, Starfleet Cadet, Cadet First Class of Starfleet. Leader of Nova Squadron. He was expelled from Starfleet Academy for orchestrating the cover up of the death of a squadron member in a botched flight maneuver. Played by Robert Duncan McNeil.
- Logan, Chief Engineer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Vyto Ruginis.
- Lore, Arch-villain. Data's evil twin brother. He is more human-like in his behavior and mannerisms than Data. Played by Brent Spiner.
- Losira, Commander. Commander of an Kalandan outpost on an artificial planet who died around 10,000 BC. Her computer generated image attempted to kill the members of a landing party from the original Enterprise after they beamed down to investigate the planet. Played by Lee Meriwether.
- Louvois, Phillipa, Starfleet Officer, Captain of Starfleet. Prosecuted Captain Picard at his court martial in connection with the loss of the USS Stargazer. She also presided over a hearing into whether Data was property of Starfleet. Played by Amanda McBroom.
- Lt. Boma, Astrophysicist, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Crew member aboard the shuttlecraft Galileo when it crash landed on a planet populated by hostile ape-like creatures. Played by Don Marshall.
- Lt. DePaul, Helmsman, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Token yellowshirt. He was at the helm of the original Enterprise with Scotty in command when the ship was attacked with disruptor fire from the surface of Emninar VII. Played by Sean Kenney.
- Lt. Jr Singh, Assistant Chief Engineer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Killed by the Beta Renner energy pattern while he was working at a console in engineering. Played by Kavi Raz.
- Lt. Leslie, Security Officer, Engineer, Navigator, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Little known jack of all trades aboard the original Enterprise; he served in numerous capacities and even sat in the captain's chair when the high ranking officers were on landing parties or otherwise engaged. Played by Eddie Paskey.
- Lt. O'Neil, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Accompanied Sulu to investigate the disappearance of the starship Archon on planet Beta III; he was absorbed into the Body of Landru before he could be beamed up to the original Enterprise, but was later rescued. Played by Sean Morgan.
- Lt. Singh, Engineer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Killed by the sentient space probe Nomad after he was put in charge of tending to the probes needs. Played by Blaisdell Makee.
- Lt. Styles, Navigator, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Navigator when the original Enterprise crew fought a cat-and-mouse battle with a Romulan warbird. He harbored a bitter resentment toward the Romulans, which he transferred to Spock, owing to his visual resemblance to them. Played by Paul Comi.
- Lursa, Klingon Warrior of House of Duras, Klingon Empire. Started Klingon Civil War together with her sister B'Etor in a bid to wrest control of the Empire from Gowron; their efforts ended in failure and the sisters ultimately died in a space fight against the Enterprise-D in orbit over Veridian III. Played by Barbara Marsch.
- Lutan, Ruler of Ligon II. Kidnapped Tasha and attempted to make her his wife when the Enterprise-D visited Ligon II to pick up a supply of a rare vaccine. Tasha was freed following a fight to the death with his actual wife, Yarena. Played by Jessie Lawrence Ferguson.
- Lynch, Leland T., Engineer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Played by Walker Boone.
- MacDougal, Sarah, Engineer, Lieutenant Commander of Starfleet. Played by Brooke Bundy.
- MacDuff, Kerian. Alias used by a Sattaran who posed as a bridge officer aboard the Enterprise-D after erasing the crew's memories. Played by Erich Anderson.
- Macias, Rebel Leader of Federation. Leader of a Maquis cell on a Federation colony that had come to pass under Cardassian rule. Ro Laren defected to his cause after infiltrating his group as part of a reconnaissance mission. He died in the ensuing firefight from a Cardassian ambush. Played by John Franklyn-Robbins.
- Maddox, Bruce, Cyberneticist, Commander of Starfleet. Played by Brian Brophy.
- Mallory, Security Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Jay D. Jones.
- Mandl, Kurt, Terraformer of Federation. Headed a Federation project to terraform what was thought to be a dead planet into a habitable world, only to find that it was inhabited by an exotic crystalline life form, which came to be called the microbrains. Played by Walter Gotell.
- Manheim, Jenice, Housewife. Played by Michelle Philips.
- Mara, Science Officer of Klingon Empire. Wife of Kang; she was a member of the Klingon crew involved in an endless battle with the Starfleet crew aboard the Enterprise-D while mind controlled by the Beta XII entity. Played by Susan Howard.
- Marcus, Claudius, Proconsul of Space Roman Empire. Proconsul on a planet with a civilization resembling the Roman Empire, but with 20th century technology. He attempted to coerce Captain Kirk into beaming down his crew to fight in televised gladiatorial combat to increase television ratings. Played by Logan Ramsey.
- Marouk, Sovereign. Leader of Acamar III who negotiated with the Gatherers over reintegration into Acamarian society after a long period of exile. Played by Nancy Parsons.
- Marr, Kila, Xenologist. Killed the Crystalline Entity – the only known member of its species – in an act of revenge for the killing of her son by the said entity in an attack on the Omicron Theta colony. Played by Ellen Geer.
- Marta, Dancer of the Elba II Asylum. Dangerously insane minion of the also dangerously insane Garth of Izar; she was executed by Garth in the presence of Captain Kirk in order to demonstrate a powerful explosive of his own design. Played by Yvonne Craig.
- Marvick, Larry, Engineer of Federation. Hijacked the original Enterprise and commandeered it beyond the Galactic Barrier, after being shocked into insanity by the sight of Ambassador Kollo – an incorporeal alien of unspeakable ugliness. He died shortly thereafter as a result of his insanity. Played by David Frankham.
- Masters, Charlene, Science Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Charged with replacing the dilithium crystals on the original Enterprise after the opening of a portal to a parallel universe drained them of their power. Played by Janet MacLachlan.
- Matson, Larry, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by David Troy.
- Maximus, Flavius, Gladiator. Most successful gladiator in his province for seven years, until he gave up fighting to join the Children of the Son, a growing group of religious dissidents on planet 892-IV. Played by Rhodes Reason.

- Rozhenko, Sergey, Engineer, Chief Petty Officer of Starfleet. Worf's adoptive father and retired warp field specialist who served aboard the USS Intrepid. He and his wife Helena once embarrassed their son by making an unannounced visit to the Enterprise-D. Played by Theodore Bikel.
-  Ruk. Played by Ted Cassidy.
- Russell, Toby, Physician of Federation. Talented doctor with a history of risking the lives of her patients in the name of medical research. She was brought aboard the Enterprise-D to consult with Beverly on treatment options for Worf after he was paralyzed in a freak accident. Played by Caroline Kava.
- Ruth. Old flame of Captain Kirk; his memory of her was conjured into reality on the Shore Leave planet – an aline pleasure world where thoughts become reality. Played by Shirley Bonne.
-  Salazar, Transporter Chief, Ensign of Starfleet. Played by Benito Martinez.
-  Salia, Princess. Leader in waiting of a race of shapeshifters. She became Wesley's first crush when she was being transported aboard the Enterprise-D to her home world to be inaugurated as leader. Played by Jaime Hubbard.
- Sandoval, Elias, Leader. Leader of a Federation colony whose population was rendered content, perfectly healthy, and utterly unindustrious by the Omicron pod plants. Played by Frank Overton.
-  Santos, Resistance Fighter of Maquis. Member of the Maquis who kidnapped Ensign Ro to determine whether she was a Maquis sympathizer or Federation spy. It turned out that she was both, and he later assisted her to defect to their cause. Played by William Thomas Jr.
-  Sarek of Vulcan, Diplomat, Ambassador of The Federation. Vulcan ambassador to Earth and father of Spock, he was an acclaimed diplomat and scientist. Notable among his diplomatic achievements, he was instrumental in gaining Coridan admittance to the Federation at the Babel Conference. Played by Mark Lenard.
-  Sargon, Leader. Leader of a trio of disembodied god-like beings who inhabited the body of Captain Kirk in order to construct android bodies for them to dwell within for eternity. Played by James Doohan (voice).
-  Sarvar, Starfleet Flag Officer, Rear Admiral of Starfleet. Played by Henry Darrow.
-  Satelk, Starship Captain of Starfleet. Presided over an investigation into the infamous Nova Squadron incident. Played by Richard Fancy.
- Satie, Norah, Judge, Rear Admiral of Starfleet. Presided over an investigation into the cause of a suspicious explosion aboard the Enterprise-D that quickly degenerated into a witch hunt. Played by Jean Simmons.
-  Scott, Montgomery, Chief Engineer, Lt. Commander of Starfleet. Chief Engineer Montgomery Scott served aboard the original Enterprise, that is, the Enterprise NCC-1701; no bloody A, B, C, or D. Scotty, as he was commonly known, was a good-natured Scotsman with a knack for coming up with creative solutions to mechanical problems that would save the ship just in the nick of time. Off duty Scotty was an avid drinker, once putting back bottle after bottle of scotch in the process of drinking an alien from the Andromeda galaxy under the table. Played by James Doohan.
-  Scott, Tryla, USS Renegade Commanding Officer, Captain of Starfleet. Played by Ursaline Bryant.
-  Sela, Officer, Commander of The Romulan Star Empire. Half-Romulan daughter, and spitting image, of Tasha Yar. Played by Denise Crosby.
-  Servin, Engineer. Leader of a ragtag band of space hippies who searched for the mythical planet Eden in a stolen space cruiser. He died after eating a highly acidic fruit on a planet he wrongly believed to be Eden. Played by Skip Hometer.
- Seven, Gary, Protector of Mankind. Abducted from Earth by a benevolent alien race around 4000 BC and trained to become a protector of mankind. He was intercepted in transport on the original Enterprise in orbit around Earth in 1968 when the crew was on a mission to investigate the early nuclear age. Played by Robert Lansing.

-  Spinelli, Helmsman, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by Blaisdell Mlake.
-  Spock, First & Science Officer, Commander of Starfleet. Mister Spock is perhaps best known for his service as first officer and science officer aboard the original Enterprise. This green blooded, pointy eared, Human/Vulcan hybrid was always careful to project the outward appearance of a dispassionate man of reason, but as those closest to him were well aware, on the inside Spock fought a constant battle between his emotions and his mathematically perfect brainwaves. His inner struggles aside, Spock was a man of culture and learning, showing a great fondness for art, literature, philosophy, science, and music. Played by Leonard Nimoy.
-  Stocker, Starfleet Flag Officer, Commodore of Starfleet. Played by Charles Drake.
- Stubbs, Paul, Astrophysicist of Federation. Scientist who came aboard the Enterprise-D for a once in a lifetime opportunity to study a Type IA supernova. His attempts to observe the stellar phenomenon were complicated by Wesley, who inadvertently released a group of sentient nanobots into the ship's computer system. Played by Ken Jenkins.
-  Sulu, Hikaru, Helmsman, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Hikaru Sulu is best remembered as the original Enterprise's calm and collected helmsman. Sulu had a number of hobbies, including fencing, gymnastics, botany, and antique firearms collecting. But behind his calm demeanor Sulu was at heart, as Spock put it, "a swashbuckler out of the 18th century." Played by George Takei.
-  Surak, Philosopher, Scientist, Logician. Most important philosopher in the history of the planet Vulcan. A lifelike image of him was created by the Exclabians to team with Captain Kirk and Spock in a battle of good versus evil. Played by Barry Atwater.

-  Sutter, Daniel, Engineer, Ensign of Starfleet. Father to Clara Sutter; he was astonished to discover that her imaginary friend, Isabella, was an alien entity that had taken on human form. Played by Jeff Allin.
-  Sylvia, Explorer. Small bird-like explorer of extra-galactic origin, who together with her associate Korob, took Human form and established an outpost on planet Pyris VII in the Milky Way galaxy. They concealed the said outpost as a haunted castle when a landing party beamed down from the original Enterprise to explore the planet. Played by Antoinette Bower.
-  Sylvia, Waitress. Waitress who took a liking to Chekov in a Melkotian recreation of the shootout at the OK Corral in Tombstone, Arizona in 1881. Played by Bonnie Beecher.
-  Talbak, Romulan Officer of Romulan Star Empire. Romulan officer in charge of abducting Geordi and mentally conditioning him to assassinate a Klingon governor. Played by John Fleck.
-  Tainer, Juliana, Scientist. Human wife of Noonian Soong and "mother" to Data. When she died in an attack on the Omicron Theta colony by the Crystalline Entity, Soong implanted his wife's memories in an identical android body without ever telling her that she was not Human. Data discovered that she was an android on her visit to the Enterprise-D, but decided that she was better off not knowing the truth. Played by Fionnula Flanagan.
-  Tal, First Officer, Subcommander of Romulan Star Empire. Served aboard the Romulan battle cruiser that Captain Kirk infiltrated in the guise of a Romulan on a covert mission to purloin their cloaking device. Played by Jack Donner.
-  Tallera, Mercenary of The Vulcan Isolationist Movement. Vulcan isolationist who posed as a Romulan mercenary as part of a nefarious plot to obtain the Stone of Gol in order to advance isolationist causes; her real name is T'Paal. Played by Robin Curtis.
-  Tamura, Crewmember, Yeoman of Starfleet. Played by Miko Mayama.
-  Tarmin, Historian. Telepathic historian who collected memories from a number of alien civilizations with the purpose of storing them in a memory large archive. His son, Jev, psionically raped Troi and attempted to frame his father for the crime while they were visiting the Enterprise-D. Played by David Sage.
-  Taurik, Engineer, Ensign of Starfleet. One among a group of junior officers posted aboard the Enterprise-D shortly before a mission near the Cardassian border that saw Sito Jaxa killed in the line of duty. Played by Alexander Enberg.
-  Teller, Starfleet Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. Played by an unknown actor.

-  Timothy, Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. An common acquaintance of Captain Kirk and Bill Finney. Played by Winston DeLugo.
- Timothy of The Federation. Sole survivor of the starship SS Vico disaster; after be-friending Data, he succumbed to the delusion of being an android as a means of coping with the loss of his parents. Played by Joshua Harris.
-  T'Jon, Freighter Captain. Commanding officer aboard Ornaran freighter that was used to transport merchandise to the planet Brekkia in exchange for the narcotic felicum, which everyone on his planet was addicted to. Played by Merritt Butrick.
-  Tokath, Prison Camp Warden of Romulan Star Empire. In charge of the Romulan prison camp where Klingon survivors of the Khitomer massacre were indefinitely detained. Played by Alan Scarfe.
-  Tomalak, Romulan Officer, Commander of The Romulan Star Empire. High ranking Romulan officer, he came into conflict with Captain Picard on several occasions. Played by Andreas Katsulas.

 Toreth, Romulan Officer, Commander of Romulan Star Empire. Commander of the Romulan warbird on which Troi was abducted to and compelled to pose as a Romulan intelligence officer in order to assist in the transport of Romulan defectors across the Neutral Zone. Played by Carolyn Seymour.

 Tormolen, Joe, Medical Officer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Played by Stewart Moss.

 T'Pring. Played by Arlene Martel.

 Tracy, Ron, Starship Captain of Starfleet. Starfleet captain who violated the Prime Directive on planet Omega IV to obtain what he falsely supposed was the key to immortality. Played by Morgan Woodward.

 Traveler, The, Traveler. Mystical humanoid with the ability to travel cosmic distances in space and time; he once took the Enterprise-D on a joyride to the edge of the universe, but returned it safely with the help of the crew. He also saw great potential in Wesley and took him on as a travel companion after he dropped out of Starfleet Academy. Played by Eric Menyuk.

 Trelane, Squire. Childish alien with apparently unlimited powers who styled himself as the Squire of Gothos. He once tormented the original Enterprise crew until his parents arrived on the scene to punish him. Played by William Campbell.

 Troi, Deanna, Counselor, Lt. Commander, Commander [img7x16] of Starfleet. Deanna Troi served as the ship's counselor aboard the Enterprise-D. Being half-Human and half-Betazoid, Counselor Troi had an innate psionic ability to sense feelings and emotions. As concerns her personal affairs, she maintained a close relationship with Will Riker through out her adult life, at times referring to him as imzadi, a Betazoid word for "beloved". Played by Marina Sirtis.

 Troi, Ian. Played by R.J. Williams.

 Troi, Lwaxana, Diplomat, Ambassador of The Federation. The overprotective mother of Deanna Troi. When she was not busy meddling in her daughter's love life during her stays aboard the Enterprise-D, she directed the better part of her efforts toward procuring a man for herself, often to the dismay of Captain Picard. Played by Majel Barrett-Roddenberry.

 T'Su Lian, Navigator, Ensign of Starfleet. Played by Julia Nickson.

 Tyler, José, Navigator of Starfleet. Served as Captain Pike's navigator on the original Enterprise. He was on the away mission to Talos IV, which saw the captain abducted by a group of powerful telepathic aliens. Played by Peter Duryea.

 Tyree, Leader. Leader of the Hill People on planet neural and an old friend of Captain Kirk. He was married to the Kahn-ut-tu woman Nona. Played by Michael Witney.

 Uhura, Nyota, Communications Officer, Lieutenant of Starfleet. The beautiful Nyota Uhura served as chief communications officer aboard the original Enterprise. Born in the United States of Africa, Uhura showed her fondness for African culture by decorating her quarters with traditional Zulu masks and a zebra-skin bedspread. She was also a talented vocalist, known for entertaining off-duty crewmen with her renditions of classic hits like "Beyond Antares" and "Oh, on the Starship Enterprise". Played by Nichelle Nichols.

 Unhari, Aquiel, Communications Officer, Lieutenant Junior Grade of Starfleet. Became romantically involved with Geordi while she was investigated for the murder of fellow Starfleet officer, Keith Rocha. She was cleared of the charge once it became apparent that the killer was in fact a coalescent organism of some kind. Played by Renée Jones.

 Uxbridge, Kevin. Powerful being that took on human form and married human female Rishon Uxbridge. He lived happily together with Rishon on the Federation colony Delta Rana IV until it was annihilated in an attack by the Husnock, killing her along with all the other colonists. Then, in a moment of rage he erased an estimated fifty billion Husnock from existence. Played by John Anderson.

Uxbridge, Rishon, Botanist. Lived happily with husband Kevin Uxbridge – a powerful being that took on a human identity – on a Federation colony until it was annihilated by the Husnock. Her husband had replaced her with a lifelike facsimile by the time the Enterprise-D arrived at the colony on a mission to rescue any survivors. Played by Anne Haney.
